ROME

A Living Portrait of an Ancient City

STEPHEN L. DYSON

"A well-written account notable for its attention to the human side of Imperial Rome and the livelihoods of its inhabitants as well as to the personalities of its leaders and the lavish history of the creation of their monumental capital."—R. Ross Holloway, Brown University

ODES FOR VICTORIOUS ATHLETES

PINDAR

translated with an introduction by Anne Pippin Burnett

You've just won the gold medal, what are you going to do? In Ancient Greece, your patron could throw a feast in your honor and have a poet write a hymn of praise to you. The great poet Pindar composed many such odes for victorious athletes. Esteemed classicist Anne Pippin Burnett presents a fresh and exuberant translation of Pindar's victory songs.

PHAENOMENA

ARATUS

translated, with an introduction and notes, by Aaron Pochigian

Aaron Pochigian's lively translation makes accessible one of the most influential poets of antiquity. Pochigian's interpretation of the Phaenomena reestablishes the ancient link between poetry and science and demonstrates that verse is an effective medium for instruction.
